PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

The Privacy Act requires that we provide you with the following information regarding our use of your Personally Identifiable Information. The information on this application is solicited under the authority of Title 49 U.S.C. 332(b)(3)(4)(5) which authorizes DOT OSDDBU to assist Disadvantage Business Enterprises and Small and Disadvantaged Business in acquiring access to working capital and to debt financing, in order to obtain transportation related contracts wholly or partially funded by DOT. Your request cannot be processed unless the data is complete. Disclosures of name and other personal identifiers are required for a benefit, as DOT requires an individual seeking assistance from DOT to provide with sufficient information for it to evaluate the risk of a loan application. In making loan guarantees pursuant to Title 49 U.S.C. 332(b)(3)(4)(5), DOT is required to have reasonable assurance that the loan is of sound value and will be repaid or that is in the best interest of the Government to grant the assistance required. Routine uses of records maintained in the system include: processing, review, and final approval of your loan by authorized Office of Small and Disadvantaged Business Utilization (OSDBU) personnel; internal loan review and independent financial analyst provided by a financial expert contractor working for OSDBU; the loan referral to a Participating Lender involved in the underwriting, loan approval, and loan servicing of the loan guarantee; and recording in the Grant Information System. Disclosure of your Social Security Number (SSN) and/or date of birth (DOB) are optional. Refusal to furnish your SSN and/or DOB will not result in the denial of any right, benefit or privilege provided by law; however, failure to provide SSN and/or DOB may result in the delay of a response of the processing of your loan application or its rejection. Routine uses of your social security number include: processing, review, and final approval of your loan by authorized Office of Small and Disadvantaged Business Utilization (OSDBU) personnel; internal loan review and independent financial analysis provided by a financial expert contractor working for OSDBU; and the loan referral to a Participating Lender involved in the underwriting, loan approval, and loan servicing of the loan guarantee.
